WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the Fifth sixth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, entitled, An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts, it is amongst other Things provided, That the Holder of a Debetur for the Purport or Issue a Court Order, whether any Commission shall have actually issued thereon or not, shall be deemed Executor of a prior Act of Bankruptcy, for the Purport of the said Act, if it should appear that an Act of Bankruptcy had been actually committed at the Time of bringing forth such Debetur: And whereas the said Act hath not been amended with the good Effects which were expected therefrom: Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said Act, in so far as the same is herein-before recited, shall be and the same is hereby amended.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases of Commission of Bankrupt Committed by the Holder of such Debetur, and Assignments against the Lands and Tenements, or Goods and Chattels of the Bankrupt, and his Executors or Assigns more than Two Calendar Months before the Date and Issuing of such Commission, shall be void and effectual, notwithstanding any prior Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Bankrupt, or his Executors or Assigns, as if no such prior Act of Bankruptcy had been committed, provided the Petition, on which such said Commission or Attachment shall have been taken at a Time of executing or leaving the same was given or any prior Act of Bankruptcy by such Bankrupt committed, or that he was solvent or had Sufficient Means: Provided always that the Thing of a Commission of Bankruptcy, although such Commission shall afterwards be dissolved, shall be deemed such Thing, if it should appear that an Act of Bankruptcy had been actually committed at the Time of issuing such Commission.

III. And Whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Fifth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, entitled, An Act to amend the Laws relating to Bankrupts, it is amongst other Things enacted, That before the Creditors of any Bankrupt shall proceed to the Choice of Assignees of the Bankrupt's Estate, the major Part in Value of the said Bankrupt's Creditors shall protest that, if they think fit, to elect in what Manner, how and with whom, and when the Money owing by and to be received from One to Three out of the Bankrupt's Estate shall be paid in and recovered, and the same shall be divided amongst all the Creditors as by that Act is directed; to which Rule now to extend every such Assignee and Assignees afterwards to be chosen as to conform, as often as One hundred Pounds shall be got in and received from such Bankrupt's Estate, as well as thereby to elect for what they do in pursuance of such Direction of the said Commission as aforesaid: And whereas the Creditors of Bankrupts do not in all Cases avail themselves of the said Power given them by the said recited Act: And whereas the aforesaid Direction of the said Act has been in many Instances disobeyed by the Assignees of the Estates of Bankrupts, who have, notwithstanding such Direction, kept in their Hands, or employed for their own Benefit, large Sums of Money, Part of the Bankrupt's Estate: Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, if in any Case the major Part of the Creditors of any Bankrupt shall not before they shall proceed to the Choice of Assignees of the Bankrupt's Estate, protest in what Manner, how and with whom, and when the Money owing from the Bankrupt's Estate shall be paid in and remain, as pursuance of the Power given to them by the said recited Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners or the major Part of them, and they are hereby required immediately after the Commission shall have proceeded to the Choice of Assignees, and at the same Meeting, to elect in what Manner, how and with whom, and when the Money owing by and to be received from One to Three out of the Bankrupt's Estate, shall be paid in and remain until the same shall be divided amongst the Creditors as by the said recited Act is directed; to which Rule and Direction the Assignee or Assignees of the Bankrupt's Estate shall conform, as often as One hundred Pounds shall be got in and received from such Bankrupt's Estate, and shall be and are hereby authorized for what they shall do in pursuance of such Direction of the said Commissioners as aforesaid: Provided that it shall not be lawful for the Commissioners to direct such Money to be paid into the Hands of the said Commissioners or any of them, or of the Solicitor to the Commissioners, or into any Banking House or other House of Trade or Business which the Commissioners or any of them, or the Solicitor to the Commissioners, are or is interested or concerned in as Partner or Partners, or otherwise.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act, in all Cases in which any Assignee or Assignees of any Bankrupt's Estate shall wholly retain in his or their Hands, or otherwise employ for his or their own Benefit, any Sum or Sums of Money, Part of the Estate of such Bankrupts, contrary to the aforesaid Direction of the said recited Act passed in the Fifth year of the Reign of King George the Second, or of the aforesaid Direction in this Act contained, he or they shall be charged in his or their Accounts with the Estates of such Bankrupts, with such Sum or Sums of Money as shall be equal to the Amount of Interest computed at the Rate of Twenty Pence per Centum per Annum on all such Sums of Money as shall be or supplied by him or them, for the Time or Times during which he or they shall have so retained or employed the same, contrary to the said Direction of the said Act: or other of them, and the Commissioners of Bankrupts are hereby required to charge such Assignee or Assignees in their Accounts with such Sum or Sums of Money aforesaid.

V. And for the Purport of above-said in what Manner the Money which shall from Time to Time come to the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees has been employed, the Commissioners shall in no Case deliver a Dividend upon Affidavit only of a certain Sum in the Hands of the Assignee, but shall require such Assignee or Assignees to deliver upon Oath a true Statement in Writing of all the Sums of Money received by by such Assignee or Assignees, and when received by him or them respectively, and on what Accounts and how employed, and shall examine such Statement and compare the Receipts with the Payments, and wherever what Balance has been from Time to Time in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees respectively, and shall enquire for what Reason any Sum appearing to be in the Hands of such Assignee or Assignees ought to be retained, and thereupon shall declare a Dividend on the remaining Sum, specifying in their Order the Sum to be allowed to be retained, and the Grounds on which they may consider it proper that the same should be retained and not divided amongst the Creditors.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the Fifth Day of January One thousand eight hundred and ten, in case any Commission of Bankrupt shall issue against any Person who is or shall be an Assignee of the Estate and Effects of any Bankrupt, and who shall, at the Time of such Commission being issued, be indebted to the Estate of the Bankrupt of whose Estate and Effects he was an Assignee, to the Amount of One hundred Pounds or upwards, in respect of Money come to his Hands as such Assignee, and actually received or employed by him for his own Benefit, the Condition of such Commission which may be obtained by such Assignee in becoming Bankrupt as aforesaid, shall only have the Effect of freeing the Person of such Bankrupt from Arrest and Imprisonment, but the said Estate and Effects of every such Person shall remain liable for so much of his Debt to the Estate of the Bankrupt of whose Estate and Effects he was an Assignee, as shall not be paid by Dividends under the said Commission, together with lawful Interest for the whole Debt, in the Manner as if he had not obtained his Certificate; the Tools of Trade, the necessary Household Goods and Furniture, and necessary Wearing Apparel of such Bankrupt and his Wife and Children, only excepted.

VII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, upon the Application of the Assignee, or of any Five or more of the Creditors who have proved their Debts under the Commission, on Notice given to the Assignee of such intended Application, when and as often as it shall appear to the said Commissioners expedient and beneficial to the Estate and Effects of any Bankrupt, that the Money to be paid to any Parties or Persons as aforesaid, for the Purpose of being divided among the Creditors, or any Money retained to satisfy any Claim which may have been duly entered upon the Proceedings under the said Bankruptcy, or any Dividends ordered to be returned by the Assignee, should be laid out as Interest, to order and discharge that the whole or any Part of such Money shall be applied to the Payment of Exchange Bills for the Benefit of such Creditors and Claimants, and to such other uses and with whom such Exchange Bills shall be kept for safe Custody, and to make such Exchange Bills to be paid when it shall appear to them necessary and proper, and to discharge the Proceeds thereof to be again laid out in the Purchase of Exchange Bills, or to be applied for the Benefit of the Creditors and Claimants, according to their several Interests, as to the said Commissioners shall seem most subject to the Authority and Control of the Lord Chancellor, Lord Keeper, or Lord Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases of Commissions of Bankrupt already issued, under which no Dividend has yet been made, or under which the Creditors, who have not proved, can receive a Dividend equally in proportion as their respective Debts without disturbing any Dividend already made, and in all Cases of Commissions of Bankrupt heretofore to be issued, where as the Time of issuing the Commission any Person shall be Surety for or be liable for any Debt of the Bankrupt, it shall be lawful for such Surety or Person liable, if he shall have paid the Debt, or any Part thereof in Discharge of the whole Debt, although he may have paid the same after the Commission shall have issued, and the Creditor shall have proved his Debt under the Commission, to stand in the Place of the Creditor as to the Dividends upon such Debt, and when the Creditor shall not have proved under the Commission, it shall be lawful for such Surety, or Person liable to prove his Dividend in respect of such Payment as a Debt under the Commission, not debating the former Dividends, and so receive a Dividend or Dividends proportionally with the other Creditors taking the Benefit of such Commission, notwithstanding such Person may have become Surety or liable for the Debt of the Bankrupt after an Act of Bankruptcy had been committed by such Bankrupt, provided that such Person had not at the Time when he became such Surety, or when he to become liable for the Debt of such Bankrupt, Notice of any Act of Bankruptcy by such Bankrupt committed, or that he was indebted, or had stopped Payment; provided always, that the issuing a Commission of Bankrupt, although such Commission shall afterwards be quashed, shall be deemed such Notice, and every Person against whom any such Commission of Bankrupt has been or shall be awarded, and who has obtained or shall obtain his Certificate, shall be discharged of all Demands at the Suit of every such Person having to pay, or being hereby enabled to prove as aforesaid, or to stand in the Place of such Creditor as aforesaid, with regard to his Debt in respect of such Suretyship or Liability, in like Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if such Person had been a Creditor before the Bankruptcy of the Bankrupt for the whole of the Debt in respect of which he was Surety or was to be liable as aforesaid.

IX. AN INDEX TO THE STATUTES
THE UNITED KINGDOM,

From the Time of the UNION between GREAT BRITAIN and IRELAND;
 41 GEORGE III. (U.K.) to 49 GEORGE III. both inclusive.

THIS INDEX has been framed by incorporating into the Index of the Second Volume of the Acts of the United Kingdom (which contained the Years 41 to 45 Geo. III. inclusive) the Acts passed in the 47th, 48th, and 49th Years; it therefore refers to ALL the Acts passed since the Union, which are printed and to be judicially noticed, as well Local and Personal, as General; and serves to show how the various Acts are connected with, or bear upon each other; particularly where several Acts have been passed on the same Subject, or where former are repealed by subsequent Acts.

The Acts which relate to IRELAND or SCOTLAND exclusively, are classed under those General Heads; but arranged in Subdivisions according to their several Subjects, with References to and from other Parts of the Index.

Other Acts respecting particular Places are to be looked for according to their several Subjects, by referring to the General Heads under which the Acts are respectively arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of Places; such, for example, as Bridges, Canals, Churches, Carts, Harbours, Paving, Fairs, and others;—the Acts under the Titles Inclosures and Tithes are classed in Alphabetical Order of the Governor in which the Inclosure takes place, or the Road begins.

All the Acts relating to Individuals or Corporations are arranged in Alphabetical Order of the Names of the Persons or Corporations, under the general Title, Personal Acts.

The Publick Local and Personal Acts are referred to in the Roman Numerals by which their Series is distinguished in the respective Sessions.

References are also made from one Head to another; and from the various Heads, under which the Subject may be looked for, to the Head under which the Statute is actually contained.

It is intended that the Index to each future Volume of the Statutes shall continue to be arranged on the same Plan; so as to afford from Time to Time a Consolidated Index of all the Acts passed since the Union.
